Experience

Witold Daniłowicz is a partner at White & Case. He specialises in M&A, international financial transactions, and legal support of investment projects. In his professional career, Daniłowicz has worked on large investment projects in the USA, Poland, Romania, Ukraine, Belarus, Lithuania, Syria, Zambia, and Congo. His interests include also matters related to extraction of mineral resources (oil, gas, and coal). He has worked on projects involving construction of oil and gas pipelines.

Witold Daniłowicz graduated from the Faculty of Law and Administration at the University of Wroclaw, Poland, in 1977. In 1982, he completed postgraduate studies in international law at the Institute of Social Studies in the Hague, Netherlands. Subsequently, he lived in the US, where he graduated in law from the Louisiana State University Law Center with a Juris

Doctor (J.D.) and a Master of Laws (LL.M.) degree. For several years, he practiced at a leading law firm in Houston, Texas. Since 1993, he has been working as a lawyer in Poland.

He is a legal advisor and member of the State Bar Associations in Louisiana and Texas.

The reputable guide, Chambers Global, recommends Daniłowicz as one of the best Polish lawyers in corporate law and M&A. According to Chambers Global, "Daniłowicz has been unanimously recognised as a leading specialist in M&A".

In the area of M&A, Witold Daniłowicz is also recommended by other prestigious specialist publications. The last edition of PLC Which Lawyer? recommends Daniłowicz for the fourth consecutive time in the M&A category.

Witold Daniłowicz is the author of numerous specialist publications, both in Poland and abroad, such as International Lawyer and Hastings International and Comparative Law Review.
